When I was looking at the data, which is part of my job, I noticed some discrepancies with the dates of death, people getting people dying within a week of being vaccinated,' says whistleblower.

A database administrator who helped the New Zealand government catalog vaccine recipients has come forward revealing the spike in deaths associated with the Covid-19 jab campaign, which resulted in hundreds dead.

According to the statistician whistleblower, who called himself "Winston Smith," he worked on a program logging vaccine compensation for providers and was able to pinpoint how deaths began occurring shortly after the vaccine rollout.

The IT specialist made the revelations in a recent interview with researcher Liz Gunn, where he discussed how he made the correlation between jabs administered and subsequent deaths.

"When I was looking at the data, which is part of my job, I noticed some discrepancies with the dates of death, people getting people dying within a week of being vaccinated," the whistleblower told Gunn.

New Zealand Covid-19 vaccination database admin turns whistleblower and reveals how many people died after taking bad batches of the Pfizer vaccine. This must be investigated. If this data of mass vaccine casualties is real there must be accountability.

“And this is Pfizer’s batch number one. We’ve had 711 from batch number one vaccinated 152 of those died which makes a 21 percentage death rate, mortality rate,” Gunn said looking at the data, which Smith confirmed was correct.

“These are real people,” Smith added. “These are real numbers. This is government data. So the top V1 has vaccinated 246 people and 60 of them are now no longer with us.”

“That is nearly 25%,” Gunn noted.

"1 in 4, nearly 1 in 4 that that person is vaccinated is now dead," Smith confirmed.

Smith said while Astrazeneca and Moderna Covid-19 vaccine batches were administered, those jabs were "only few and far between," and that "Mostly it's Pfizer, mostly it's Pfizer in New Zealand."

Here are a few key excerpts from the interview:

I was involved with building a project, helped with implementing a vaccine payment system for our providers. It's called a pay per dose system. So that means that every time someone gets vaccinated, they get a payment for it as a provider. And I helped build it, I implemented it. And when I was looking at the data, which is part of my job, I noticed some discrepancies with the dates of death, people getting people dying within a week of being vaccinated.

“the chances of that occurring naturally by chance is almost impossible.”

“Well, as soon as the system went live, we noticed that people were dying almost straight away after being injected. So that sort of prompted my curiosity a bit, and so I dug a little deeper. And I am a scientist by nature. I love science. It’s my all time favorite. I’ve got a master’s degree in science.”

“Because it’s a payment system and I’m the database administrator for it. I’m the only one. Because New Zealand is a small country, you can get away with one database administrator to do this. So I’m in a unique position in the world. And because New Zealand is a tier one country with really good in I.T., I was able to manage and build the system and be the only database administrator needed to look after it. In other countries like America or Britain, you’d need a whole team of people. So it would be very difficult for one person to get access to all of this information. But in New Zealand, because of its size and because it’s got really good I.T, I happen to be the one.”

Commenting on Smith’s bombshell, entrepreneur and NZ resident Kim Dotcom remarked, “This must be investigated. If this data of mass vaccine casualties is real there must be accountability.”

Smith’s alarming claims have not been disputed by the New Zealand government as of writing.

During the Covid pandemic, former New Zealand Prime Minister Jacinda Ardern implemented vaccine mandates for hospitality workers and linked vaccine rates to lockdowns.

Ardern resigned earlier this year.

UPDATE:

NZ Whistleblower Who Exposed COVID Jab Mass Deaths Was Just ARRESTED

Jamie White | InforWars.com

The NZ government has reportedly raided and arrested Health Ministry whistleblower who revealed 20% of vaccinated die within one year of taking COVID shot.

A database administrator who helped the New Zealand government catalog vaccine recipients blew the whistle last week revealing the spike in deaths [article above] associated with the Covid-19 jab campaign.

Now, according to reports, that whistleblower, named Barry Young, has been raided by the New Zealand government.

Journalist Liz Gunn released an official statement explaining how the NZ Ministry of Health whistleblower and an individual working with him have both been raided by police on Sunday.

"I've had a call to say that the whistleblower who has put out the crucial information exposing the COVID lies, exposing the information that he had working for the Ministry of Health in New Zealand, has had his house surrounded by police at 2:15pm today," she said.

“And this I heard ten minutes ago: the second person who backs up that whistleblower and one of the people who contacted me along with the whistleblower has had heard house now surrounded by police.”

“So those two people are no longer available to talk to us and I must put this message out to the world,” Gunn added.

Young had made the revelations in a recent interview with Gunn, where he discussed how he made the correlation between jabs administered and subsequent deaths.

“When I was looking at the data, which is part of my job, I noticed some discrepancies with the dates of death, people getting people dying within a week of being vaccinated,” the whistleblower told Gunn.

“1 in 4, nearly 1 in 4 that that person is vaccinated is now dead,” Young confirmed citing the government’s Pfizer batch data.

Gunn herself has reportedly also had to flee for fear of government retaliation.

Liz Gunn revealing her MOAR whistleblower. Some English bloke calling himself Winston Smith claiming to have had access to a MOH database proving 1 in 3 died from the jab. Except his actual name is Barry Young, and he hasn't worked for the Ministry since 2010. Terrible actor too!

Alex Jones gave his analysis of the database administrator coming forward to expose the massive spike in deaths associated with the Covid-19 jab campaign:

“This will bring down the globalists. Not just this report, but in inspiring other whistleblowers to go public,” Jones said.

Steve Kirsch joined The Alex Jones Show last week to further break down the data points from the New Zealand whistleblower’s major bombshell exposing mass death from the COVID shots.
